October 6th Match Recap

Rebounding from a tough conference loss on Tuesday, the Pointer Tennis Team had a dominating performance against non-conference opponent Beloit College. Playing in their final home meet, Seniors Emily Bouché and Mashell VerBockel finished strong, winning in both doubles and singles. Mashell VerBockel teamed with Kaitlyn King at No. 2 doubles, defeating their opponents 8-5. Playing at No. 3 doubles, Emily Bouché and Emily Oxtan won 8-3. Congrats to Emily and Mashell for providing UWSP with four years of solid tennis!

Also providing UWSP with singles wins were Emily Riordan, Kaitlyn King, and Kaylei Sorensen. Kaitlyn and Kaylei were dominating in each of their singles matches, barely losing a game. Emily Riordan played the best singles match, beating Erika Zevin, 6-4, 2-6, 10-3. In an earlier meeting at the Whitewater Invitational, Emily lost to Erika, 6-3, 6-0. Emily’s steady improvement and consistent play was very evident against Beloit. Way to go Emily!

Looking Ahead

On Friday, October 12th, the Pointer Women's Tennis Team plays its final dual meet of the season. The Pointers will travel to Oshkosh to take on conference opponent UW-Oshkosh at 3:30 p.m. The Pointers are looking to close out the season with a winning record. With a win over Oshkosh, the Pointers look to keep momentum heading into the WIAC Conference Tournament. If you are in the area, stop by and cheer the Pointers to victory!

The Frosty Open

Mark your calendars. The UWSP Tennis Team will host a tennis tournament on December 14th-16th, at SentryWorld. The tournament will be open to everyone (youth and adults). Details will be available soon. All proceeds from this tournament will go to support UWSP Women's Tennis. Come out, play tennis, have fun, and support the program!

SentryWorld Thank You!

A huge "THANK YOU" goes out to Susan Placzek, Mark Medow, and everyone at SentryWorld. Your support of the UWSP Tennis program is appreciated. You made our home events a success. We look forward to having SentryWorld as our home court for years to come!
